SALES TAX TO AID LAND OWNERS, IS GRIER'S PROPOSAL

Enough Money to Operate Schools Would Be Raised Under Favored Plan

SUPPORT IS STATE-WIDE

Supervisor Tells Lions What Would Be Taxed and How Much Total

How a combination income and sales tax can annually raise $42,000,000 and at the same time relieve the unjust real estate taxation burden was effectively described by C. E. Grier, chairman of the county board of supervisors, at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in the Red Hill Country club yesterday.

His proposal, which a year ago gained state - wide recognition, has advanced another step in the assurance of the state finance director who approves the plan in principle.

The proposed income tax would raise $20,000,000. The following items, and the tax on each would raise the amounts listed: cigarettes, 2 cents a package, $7,500,000; tobacco, 10 cents a can, $5,000,000; amusements, 10 percent $6,000,000; caps for home-brew and soft drink bottles, $2,000,000; malt extract, 5 cents a pound, $500,000; cosmetics, $750,000, and a small tax on stock transfers and dealers' licenses.

Real estate tax now raises $35,000,000 annually for operation of elementary and high schools. Under Mr. Grier's plan, the $35,000,000 would be paid out of the fund created through the sales and income tax. This plan, if realized, would remove from local property owners the present $1.15 tax for elementary and high schools.

Need for tax equalization was stressed by the speaker, who for several years has worked toward the plan of relieving property owners. Real and common property now raises 76 per cent of the state tax money while income from this property is only 26 per cent of the income in the state.

Mr. Grier did not discuss features of the proposed income tax. He said its requirements would bring a revenue of $20,000,000 to the fund. He then recited the items proposed for the sales tax.

For years Mr. Grier has lead the fight to the end of relieving owners of real property. Various state - wide organizations have joined in the fight and today preparations are being made to include the tax proposal in an initiative measure to be presented to the voters at the November election.

In general, the plan will remove the burden of the educational cost from real property to the state. The income and sales tax are proposed to create the additional revenue for the state.

Earl H. Johnson was program chairman, with President Harold W. Cook in charge of the meeting.

RED SCALE BATTLE IS BEING PLANNED

Etiwanda May Form District to Prevent Spread of Pest

ETIWANDA, Jan. 15.—Establishment of a district to protect citrus trees against the invasion of red scale is likely here as the result of the appearance of two specialists at the meeting of the Etiwanda Service club Wednesday night.

Systematic and uniform spraying and fumigation, concentrated in eradicating all trace of the pest and in protecting the trees against future invasion, would be followed if the district is formed. R. S. Woglum, entomologist for the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, and M. Lorbeer, red scale specialist from the northern citrus section, discussed advisability of such a district, the likely result and the cost.

Reference was made to one district of 10,000 acres, which operated successfully at a cost of about $2.50 an acre.

Red scale has made its appearance in one section of the Etiwanda colony and fearing spread of the pest, local citrus leaders are considering plans to protect the groves. An area of about 2000 acres would be included. No special opposition to the district has appeared and it is likely steps will be taken immediately for the work.

He attended the first meeting toward the solution this week. The cities have objected to the proposed schedule of payments, which calls for cities to pay all the widening.

Four hundred and twenty tickets have been issued up until noon today to hungry transcients and a sum of $18.50 has been received to pay for tickets when no work is available.

A person signing the name, "M. E. K." was the latest to contribute to the fund, enclosing $5 in a letter to J. F. Sawyer, chief of police.

Mrs. Bess Grisham contributed $3.50 several weeks ago. One of the service clubs added $10 to the fund.

CHAMBER IS SEEN AS ONE GROUP FOR ALL IN DISTRICT

Annual Meeting of Civic Body Hears Reports of Year's Work

LOCAL PROGRAM GIVEN

Pioneer Pilgrimage Recognized as Outstanding Event in Chamber Work

Hailed as the one organization for everyone in Upland and described as the machinery for building the community into a better place in which to live and do business, the chamber of commerce observed a milestone last night, with a "home talent" program adding music, acting and enthusiasm.

The chamber activities during 1931 were reviewed as reports were given. President L. R. Bradley presided with the business part being interspersed with musical selections. The meeting was held in the Upland Woman's club house.

One of the chamber's big events was presentation of the Pioneer Pilgrimage and Ernest H. Gibson, chairman in charge, declared that it had taken the name of Upland to many in the state and that in the future with proper handling it could be self-sustaining. Last September's pregentation "broke even," he said, and added the event would be given again if the people wanted it.

In reporting on the memberships, John W. Shepperson pointed out the chamber was the clearing house for all other local civic organizations to work through. He highly commended the businessmen for their enthusiasm and optimism and urged the citrus growers to unite more than ever in backing the business people in the chamber work.

An average of 35 personal and mail inquiries are answered daily or nearly 13,000 a year, Clair E. Kirk secretary, said in reviewing the actual operations of the civic organization. He touched upon activities not otherwise included in reports of other speakers and referred to the free employment bureau and the Associated Charities organization.

Total of 324 jobs have been given to men registered on the Upland unemployed list. All extra county, municipal and water conservation workers in this district have been handled through the chamber office.

The Associated Charities includes 25 local groups, with the chamber the sponsoring organization, spreading assistance to all local worthy needy, Mr. Kirk pointed out. Cash received for the Associated Charities from various sources is more than $500.

Including all activities, the chamber handled nearly $12,000 during the year.

Other reports were given by Glenn M. Atwood, who told of activities of the merchants' committee; Ernest C. Mehl, who reviewed the baseball season and

Facing Death In Snow For Ten Days, Local Woman Tells Story

They faced death and they had prepared to die.

For 10 days and nights they had tried to get help and for 10 days and nights they had failed and hope was apparently gone. Separated from the world by 26 miles of deep snow drifts, at the foot of a steep grade, and surrounded by wild beasts of the land, Mrs. Mary J. Morrison, 1126 East Ninth street, and John Murray Curtin, her nephew, an orchestra leader on the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, suffered an experience that nearly cost their lives.

"But the Lord is good, we were found and I think we will be all right," Mrs. Morrison said, in telling of the narrow escape from death. Her nephew is suffering from frozen feet, but his condition is not known here. He is in a navy hospital.

Mattly ranch, Leevining, Mono county, was their destination. They were about 25 miles from relatives, whom they were planning to surprise over the Christmas and New Year's holidays. A severe snow storm filled in the tracks made by cars ahead of the Upland woman's machine. They could go no further. They sought to turn around and return. A skid chain broke. The car would not move. They were stuck. It was Christmas eve. They had a couple of sandwiches. There was no fire available.

Snow continued to pile up. Wind was in a terrific gale. Each day Curtin started out to seek help. The snow would not pack and he waded through drifts up to his waist and shoulders. Each day brought new hope and each night brought nearer the thought of death.

Nothing could be done, apparently, but just to wait until the grim reaper or the animals came. Thinking perhaps their remains would be found after the storm, or perhaps not until spring, Mrs. Morrison kept a log of each day's attempts, of their dates of leaving Upland, of being stalled and notation of their destination. She wrote the log on a pasteboard pie plate. She showed it in describing her experiences.

Finally, Curtin determined to make a final and last attempt. By the tenth day of waiting snow had packed some and he had improvised some snowshoes. Notes of identification were written for Curtin to take with him and for Mrs. Morrison to keep.

"I'll pray every step of the way," Mrs. Morrison told him. "Yes, all we can hope for is that Providence may lead us out," the nephew replied.

"Now, Murray, if you find you cannot make it, you return, and we will die together," the local woman told the man, she said, in

MRS. SHEPPARD NEW HEAD OF DAUGHTERS

Mary Brainard Tent Installs New Officers; Visitors From Pomona

In a beautifully executed ritualistic ceremony, new officers of Mary Brainard Tent, Daughters of Veterans, were installed last night in the presence of a crowd of members and ivsitors that taxed the capacity of the American Legion hall.

Mrs. Annette K. Smith, with her staff of assistants, 19 in number, was the installing officer and the ceremonial work was very impressively executed.

In addition to the installing staff, there were a number of other members of the Pomona tent and a group of visitors from the Pomona Sons of Veterans post.

Following the installation greetings were given the visitors, a number of whom, both Daughters and Sons, made brief but very interesting talks. The visitors also extended invitations to the Upland tent to attend their installations, that of the Daughters coming on Jan. 25.

New official staff of the local tent includes: Mrs. Janet Sheppard, president; Mrs. Gertrude White, senior vice-president; Mrs. Ida Stevens, junior vice-president; Mrs. Sadie Benner, chaplain; Mrs. Clara Tilden, secretary; Mrs. Sadie Daniels, treasurer; Mrs. Louise Hamer, patriotic instructor; Mrs. Catherine Evans, guide; Mrs. Mattie Henderson, press correspondent; Mrs. Sarah Nelson, first council member (two yet to be selected); color bearers, Mesdames Bessie Smithburn, Mary Haddow, Minnie Goodrich and Naomi Taylor.

AUTOIST STRIKES TRAIN; PASSENGER CAR IS DERAILED

Victor O'Bryant, Ontario, Skids Machine Into U. P. Today

INJURIES ARE CRITICAL

Driver Fails to See Locomotive Approach as Snow Covers Pavement

Skidding into the Union Pacific train at 6:45 o'clock this morning as the locomotive sped by at Vine avenue, Ontario, Victor O'Bryant, South San Antonio avenue, Ontario, was critically injured. Couplings of the passenger car were broken and the car derailed by the impact. None of the train passengers were injured, but were badly shaken.

O'Bryant was going north on Vine avenue and it is believed he failed to see the approaching train. Brakes applied to the machine caused the wheels to slide easily over the snow-covered pavement and the driver and the auto crashed heavily against the fast-moving, westbound passenger, train. The car was demolished.

A Draper ambulance rushed the injured man to the San Antonio Community hospital, where X-rays revealed he may be suffering from a punctured lung, a fractured rib and severe cuts and bruises about the head. The man is conscious and hospital attendants described his condition as quite critical, although it is believed he is not fatally injured.

SNOW FALLS HERE AS WHITE BLANKET COVERS MOUNTAINS

Citrus District Is Covered as Storm Leaves Light Fall of Snow

FOOT DEEP AT ICE HOUSE

More Snow or Rain May Come as Clouds Hang Over Community

Low temperatures are not likely tonight and the clouds will continue to hang over, with either snow or rain to come, R. J. Rogers, local government weather observer, said today. He indicated that Mr. Young's prediction over KNX at 8 o'clock tonight would be that of safe temperatures.

Some lemon growers were advised last night to be prepared to shake heavy snow from the tree branches.

Snow today covered the citrus district and clouds hanging low threaten to pour out more of the white covering or rain. At Ice House canyon one foot of snow was measured, with eight inches at Camp Baldy and about two inches at the mouth of San Antonio canyon.

The snow depth varied throughout the groves and the Chaffey district, but the storm was general and was enough to give Southern Californians a hint of winter weather experienced in colder climes.

Temperature today was above the orchard heating point and the coming snow was predicted in Floyd D. Young's forecast at 8 o'clock last night. Heating was general Wednesday night and Thursday morning, with the mercury going down to 28 degrees in the official thermometer at Chaffey.

At Camp Baldy, 15 degrees temperature was recorded Wednesday night, with the mercury rising there to permit the falling of snow today.

The white blanket of snow covering the mountains and lower portions of San Antonio and Cucamonga canyons appears as a threatening menace to the citrus district, and in case the clouds clear away, low temperatures are expected.

To the new Californians here, today's fall of snow was a pleasing diversion, but to the old-timers and the citrus growers, the snow means the possibility of continued cold weather. A light snow also fell Wednesday morning, but did not remain in the groves long.

Precipitation last night and early today added .20 of an inch to the rain total, bringing the season's record up to 14.11 inches, J. R. Johnston, weather observer, reported. Snow along Twenty-second street, Mr. Johnston's district, was about two inches deep, and he received a report from Los Angeles to the effect that the white blanket was 1½ inches deep there.

"Sour Grapes"—And More "Sour Grapes"

Isn't it strange how great an interest the newspapers of other sections of the country take in the weather of California—and how they apparently worry about the rains we so greatly welcome? From one of our exchanges we get the following comment by the Chicago Daily Tribune:

"The extraordinary development of a high mist in Southern California has given the upland environs of Los Angeles several inches of snow. In Los Angeles itself the mist was perceived by visitors as a cold, penetrating all day rain, but the natives observed nothing but a slight fog. Indeed, some of them could not observe that, but remarked upon the brilliance of the sunlight. It is presumed in other parts of the country that the mist did not attend the Southern California-Georgia football game Saturday, but of that no certainty. It is true that the radio announcer mentioned the sun kissed, golden warmth of the afternoon and described the shadows lengthening toward the end of the day upon the defeated Georgians. Even in the dusk the sun shines upon the native players. But the radio announcements from Los Angeles football fields are to be taken technically. Last year a game played part of the time in a downpour and the rest of the time in a drizzle was described to faraway listeners as being played in sun kissed golden warmth. There was not even a high mist.

"A good Californian would have noticed the remarkable dryness and sun kissed golden warmth of the deluge if it had come anywhere near Los Angeles."

Why does the Tribune, and practically all the other newspapers of the middle west and east, worry about California weather? It apparently worries them much more when it rains here than it does we who live in Southern California. Everyone who knows anything about this part of the country knows that we welcome the rain during the winter months—and that we would like to have more than we get. We expect it to rain during the winter—and it is lack of rain instead of too much that worries our residents. Of course we don't like to have it rain on a football game, but we even admit that it does just that very thing once in a great while.

However, there was no "downpour," as the Tribune states, during the New Year football game a year ago—there was a "drizzle" during part of the game. And as for radio announcers raving about the "sun kissed golden warmth," if memory serves us right it was a radio announcer from the extreme east, none other than the famous Graham MacNamee, who exploited California sunshine and scenery in such glowing terms while broadcasting a football game here several years ago that the easterners suspicioned he was paid by Californians—and all got sore because he talked as much about the California climate as he did about the football game.

This is a "cold" winter in California—cold for this section. We had a slight snow in Upland Wednesday morning—and we have had to light orchard heaters several nights to keep the citrus fruit from freezing. However, it isn't 10 below zero—the coldest has been about 24 or 25 above.

The Tribune can't fool the people "back east" about the kind of weather we have in Southern California. That's what brought most of us out here to live—and it wouldn't take a great effort to get back where we came from if we so desired. There are plenty of folks back there who would gladly change places with us.

As a rule people don't simply "pull up stakes" and move to California. They usually come out and spend a few weeks or a few months of the winter—or several winters—and the salubrious climate finally brings them out to become residents. They soon learn that out here they can have either summer or winter climate during the winter months. Right now in the mountains at an elevation of 3000 or 4000 feet there is snow several feet deep—and there are winter sports of all kinds. Californians—and those who are sojourning in this clime—can take their choice; if they get tired of the mild temperature in the lower altitudes they can go to the mountains and enjoy winter weather and winter sports.

That's California, folks—and we don't have to urge people to come out here to live—there are thousands coming every year, and many more thousands who are anxious to come.

The fact that eastern papers don't mislead people who know something about California climate is proven by the following note from one of The Upland News' good subscribers right in the vicinity where the Chicago Tribune is published. In renewing his subscription B. E. Taylor of Oak Park, Ill., says:

"Renewal of my subscription for the current year affords me pleasure. My citrus property interests in Upland have continued since the year 1910, being in charge of W. H. Tuttle since 1917.

"Your publication is of much value in my household since it not only keeps all members informed as to local events, but ofttimes quiets our minds over weather conditions, patricularly at this season of the year. Papers hereabouts seem prone to exaggerate."

—o—

Folks, you don't know what opportunities you miss by not being in the newspaper game. We thought we had all the different kinds of advertising propositions put up to us that could ever be invented—but we had a new one come in the other day. It's a doctor who wants to run advertising in this family journal and in exchange for the space he offers to treat this News Guy, our wife and any or all of our children, "without charge," provided the illness falls into the classification of diseases treated by his office. Says the advertisement: "Even your home doctor may be surprised to know that you can be successfully treated (cured) of most every stomach, intestinal and rectal disease without operation, without going to a hospital, without interruption of your regular work and habits, without loss of your earning capacity and without pain of any consequence or duration." About the only thing in the proposition that appeals to us is that regarding our "earning capacity"—and if the doctor would guarantee to increase that we might be interested in his proposition.

"There's no 'panic.' Just a big grouch," says the San Bernardino Sun. And isn't a grouch the hardest thing to get over you ever heard of?

—o—

One thing we can be practically sure of: There will not be more punk radio programs in 1932 than there were last year.

The Slogans

Beverly Hills Citizen: "He. Haw! We're Coming Back!"

The Pathfinder offered a prize for a Democratic slogan for 1932 and that is what it got. And United States Senators Royal S. Copeland, Morris Sheppard and Clarence C. Dill were the committee that awarded the prize. Big men!

The Pathfinder will give an award, too, for a Republican slogan. We hope the committee on selection will not make such a jolly ass of it. If all the Democrats have to give us as a campaign slogan for 1932 is a smiling jackass the Republicans can at least go them one better and get a laughing hyena to say something apropos of their hopes. With a smiling jackass and a laughing hyena waving from the banners at opposite ends of Main street, the campaign can be waged upon that high plane which usually accompanies a presidential year. It will make it so much easier, too, for "the powers that be" to amuse the people while they further prosecute their designs of stealing the capitol dome.

"Sucker Money"

Hemet News: According to a recent statement from W. O'Neil, president of the General Tire and Rubber company, one of the prime causes of the present hard times has been an abundance, in prosperous times, of "sucker money."

"Sucker money" is the money which the investing public, prior to 1929, threw into industrial securities without investigation. As O'Neil points out, it led to many unwarranted expansions of industrial plants. This inflated the businees boom beyond proper proportions, and when the crash came there was no possibility of re-employing the men who had had jobs in the overexpanded trades.

"Expansion," says O'Neil, "should be financed by earnings, not by sales of bonds and stocks, except in rare instances."

That is warning for industrialists to bear in mind when prosperity returns. When we go up too fast and too high we are apt to come down the same way.

Not To Be So Easy, After All

Huntington Beach News: Whatever you think now—next year's national political campaign is going to be no runaway for the Democrats. Roosevelt and Smith the Damon and Pythias of the empire state, are beginning to show signs of repeating the Taft and Roosevelt scrap of 1912.

The prohibition issue in the Democratic party is also full of dynamite. At least the Republican party know where they stand on the question, and that is something the Jeffersonians haven't figured out. There is also no question about who the Republican candidate will be. The Democrats, on the other hand, with their two-thirds majority rule on nominations, may find that while Al Smith can't get the nomination himself, he can keep Roosevelt from getting it—if the Smith-Roosevelt long standing friendship should happen to snap.

"Paul, this suit is very shabby. May I give it away?"

"Heavens, no. That is the suit I go in to protest against my income tax."—Passing Show.

WILD SHEEP GAIN IN LOCAL DISTRICT

Hunting Conditions in Forest More Favorable Than Ever, Is Report

Increase in the number of wild sheep in the Old Baldy district is looked upon by William V. Mendenhall, supervisor of the Angeles National forest, as one of the outstanding events concerning sportsmen during 1931. In his annual report, he points out that deer more than held their own against the inroads of hunters and that lion depredations are becoming fewer. Only 19 mountain lions now make their home in the forest, he said. Other predatory animals include 260 coyotes and 712 wild cats.

Although only 40 sheep have been reported in the local flock for many years, the past year saw their numbers increase to 58 and the fewer lions are believed to have been cause for the increase.

There is no danger of deer in the Angeles National Forest becoming so plentiful that they would suffer for lack of subsistence, Mr. Mendenhall believes Sufficient feed and room exists for many times the number of game animals supported at present, he said.

The large deer population in the mountain districts within 60 miles of Los Angeles is another "unusual" feature of the fifth city, and of this district, sportsmen say. No other large city of the country offers deer hunting so close to its borders.

The forest supports no elk, moose, antelope or bears, the report says. All of the deer population belongs to the species known as "black-tail."

During the year predatory animals are reported to have killed 235 deer and automobiles to have killed 35 deer.

A survey of predatory animals killed in the forest and adjoining lands shows the destruction of 30 coyotes, 1 mountain lion, 48 wildcats, 100 foxes, and 150 skunks during 1931.

Orange Show Will Be Vivid With Paintings

Huge reproductions of some of the most famous of historical paintings of incidents in the life of George Washington will be embodied in the Colonial decorative motif for the 22nd National Orange show, Feb. 18 to 28.

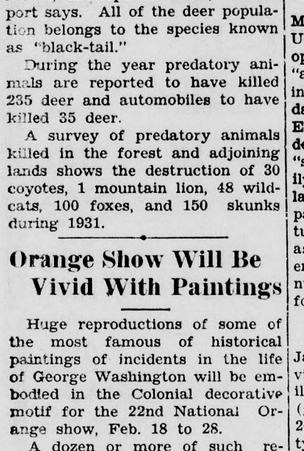

A dozen or more of such reproductions have been made by W. J. Keown, Orange show decorator, and they will be arranged in panels along the sides of the vast exposition building. On canvas, the paintings were reproduced on the exact scale of their originals and are expected to prove an unusual and interesting feature of next month's show.

SNOW COVERS MOUNTAINS—AND UPLAND

Here are a few views of where there is real snow, but Uplanders this week did not have to go any place to see snow—all they had to do was to stay inside their warm homes and look out. Wednesday morning's and today's first view of the citrus district was snow, which like a blanket covered everything from the Chaffey campus to the mountains. These scenes depict winter sports now so popular in the adjacent mountain resorts.

Many Good Family Pictures Secured by Upland Theatre

A representative of the Upland Motion Picture council and the Upland theater exhibitor have cooperated in making out a list of "approved" family pictures coming to the Upland theater with dates of their appearing. Robert E. Baker, the exhibitor, will endeavor, as always, to have the "shorts' 'in keeping. These family lists are pubilshed by The Upland News as a special aid to parents in their choice of pictures for the young people, and as a rule, they are also the most entertaining for adults. They are numerous enough to make it easy for parents to be discriminating.

The list follows:

"Little Women" To Be Given Saturday

Due to the phenomenal public interest which marked the regular performances of Louisa M. Alcott's American classic, "Little Women," its run has been extended for two additional showings, Saturday, January 16, at 2:30 and 8:30 p.m. "Little Women" is a Claremont Community Players production presented at the Little Theatre in Padua Hills.

Sold-out houses greeted the production during the latter part of the week, and a large number of people were unable to secure seats. Special student rates were in effect, and will continue for both the added showings, it was learned from Fred Orin Harris, director of the play. More than 1500 people, including many from Upland, have already witnessed the play.

"Little Women," a play of unique human appeal, deals with the Civil War period of American history. The dramatization of Alcott's famous novel is by Marian De Forest.

There are now 442 Legion posts in the state and it is expected that the membership will reach 75,000 during 1932.

Camp Baldy District Library Tea Is Held

CAMP BALDY, Jan. 15.—Organized under the leadership of Mrs. F. R. Quintival, Baldy district librarian, a group of women residents met Jan. 12 in Bear Canyon resort, to hold the first library tea of the new year.

The program consisted of two book reviews, an explanation of the successful author's work, and a sketch of Willa Cather. Mrs. Arthur Allison reviewed "A Lantern in Her Hand," by Aldrich; Mrs. Burnside presented "Valley of the Giants," by Peter B Kyne; Mrs. Elmer McLure spoke on the author's work, explaining in particular the routine followed by Sinclair Lewis, and Miss Ida Vernon discussed Willa Cather.

Of particular interest was the report of Mrs. Quintival in which she stated that 3,664 books had been issued out from the library in the past year.

That the meeting was a complete success was signified by the unanimous vote of those present to make the Library Tea recurrent, with meetings once each month at Bear Canyon resort. Mrs. Arthur Allison will be the hostess at the next tea.

Eighteen women were present. They were the Mesdames Teazle, Shaw, McLure, Sawyer, Pruitt, Mayo, Allison, Wilcox, Adams, Rosebrough, Burnside, Hungerford, Quintival, Wisely, Chapman, and Sanborn, and the Misses Carr and Vernon.

Picture Council Is To Meet on First Tuesday in Future

Change in the day of meeting was decided upon by members of the Upland Motion Picture council when they held their regular meeting Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Leon Durham, Euclid avenue. The new time of meeting will be the first Tuesday in each month instead of the second Wednesday. The hour, 9 a. m., remains the same.

There was a large attendance of members and considerable time was devoted to hearing reports on current pictures seen by various members.

A guest at the meeting was Mrs. Charles Bonadiman of Chino, chairman of education for the Pomona Valley branch of the American Association of University Women. Since her department includes better motion picture activities. Mrs. Bonadiman was interested in the manner of operation and the work of the local council.

Mrs. L. J. Horsch, president of the council, presided at the meeting.

Snowball Provides Sport for Pupils

A huge snowball was rolled onto the campus at the Upland junior high school early Wednesday morning, brought down from near the foothills by some adult who has the happy faculty of remembering the joy of youthful snow battles, and did those boys and girls need to be told what to do with it? Within a few minutes that large ball had been reduced to many small balls that were flying thick and fast in furious battle.

P.-T. A. Study Circle in Session Wednesday

Mrs. Walter G. Hill, Twentieth street and Euclid avenue, was hostess Wednesday when the Study circle of the Eighteenth street Parent-Teacher association held its regular meeting, there being a good attendance of the members.

Opening the session at 11 a. m., Mrs. J. I. Countryman led the lesson, an outline of which appears in each issue of the organization magazine.

The usual box lunch was enjoyed at noon and in the afternoon Mrs. Hill conducted a Dutch auction, the proceeds of which were added to the P.-T. A. cafeteria fund.

The cafeteria, which has been in operation since November, being sponsored by the P.-T. A., is serving daily at least 25 children, with the number sometimes reaching as high as 38. One hot dish is included in the menu and milk is also available.

Upland Friends Guests at Golden Wedding Reception—

Driving over to Pasadena on the very pleasant mission of participating in a golden wedding celebration, a group of Upland friends were guests Tuesday of Mrs. Maud Johnstone when she entertained at an afternoon and evening reception for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. McIntyre, who observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre resided in Upland for a number of years, leaving here more than 30 years ago, and they still have many friends among those who lived in Upland in the early days.

The Johnstone home was beautifully decorated with many bouquets of gorgeous blossoms and throughout the hours of the reception scores of friends called to congratulate the aged bride and bridegroom, who thoroughly enjoyed the rare experience.

A musical program was given at both the afternoon and evening events and a pleasing feature was the singing of old - time favorite songs by the children and grandchildren of the honored couple.

Attending the afternoon reception were Mrs. M. H. Bordwell, Mrs. Reid B. Bordwell, Mrs. M. H. Drummond, Mrs. J. Lynward Grahame and Miss Bertha Palmer. Those attending in the evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cline, Mrs. Minnie D. Goodrich and Mrs. C. E. Allen.

Past Presidents Are Honored at Woman's Club Luncheon

"Past Presidents" day program was a delightful event Tuesday when members of the Upland Woman's club gathered at their club house for a luncheon session.

Mrs. Donald E. Hill was luncheon hostess, assisted by members of the January committee. The tables arranged for the more than 80 members and guests attending were prettily decorated in a lovely combination of pink rose geraniums, Scotch heather and smilax, complemented with tall pink candles in crystal holders. A massive bouquet of the blooms in a tall fern stand was placed in the large studio window with charming effect. Mrs. S. M. Jessup was head of the dining room committee.

Preceding the after-luncheon program, of which Mrs. Una R. Winter, junior past president (1929-1931), was in charge, the club president, Mrs. Nora M. Eells, conducted a business meeting at which routine matters were considered, several reports received and announcements made.

In opening the program Mrs. Winter stated that since she does not assume the title of past president until next term she felt free to express in behalf of the club the deep appreciation the members feel for the very efficient service given the club by the past presidents, whose faithful efforts and generous giving of their time and ability have been a large factor in the splendid success of the organization.

The musical numbers of the program were given by Bevington Blakeslee, who sang in rich baritone voice "On the Way to Mandalay" and "Song of Farewell." He was accompanied by his father, S. Earle Blakeslee.

A fascinating story of the life of Rudyard Kipling during a number of years spent in Vermont, including many intimate and interesting details, was told by Mrs. L. D. Temple when she spoke on "Personal Recollections of Rudyard Kipling."

Mrs. Temple lived in Brattleboro at the time of Kipling's residence there and she told of his marriage to a Brattleboro girl and many incidents of his family life that are unknown to the public. His first book, "Naulako," was published in 1890 and he named his Brattleboro home after the book. It was there, Mrs. Temple related, that his masterpiece, "Recessional," was rescued by his wife from the wastebasket where he had tossed the manuscript in the belief that it was valueless.

Mrs. Winter then introduced the attending past presidents, each of whom spoke briefly of her experiences in office,of the inspiration gained, of the educational benefits, the value of new friendships formed and the lessons learned.

The past presidents responding were Mrs. F. H. Manker (1910-11, 1913-14), Mrs. Geo. W. Barlow (1911-12), Mrs. R. C. Norton (1917-19), Mrs. V. H. Wilson (1919-21), Mrs. E. E. Hawthorne (1921-23), Mrs. W. H. Tuttle (1923-25), Mrs. L. D. Temple (1925-27), Mrs. J. E. Sargent (1927-29).

Regrets were read by the secretary from Mrs. George Gregg (1906-07) and Mrs. Lansing T. Vedder (1916-17), who were unable to attend, and a message to the club from Mrs. Ella Westland Beaubier (1903-04), the club's first president, was read by Mrs. F. H. McQuillen.

Club Travel Section Plans Pilgrimage

First meeting of the newly organized travel section of the Upland Woman's club will take place on Saturday, Jan. 30, when a trip will be made to Forest Lawn park, Glendale.

Visits will be made to The Little Church of the Flowers and the Wee Kirk o' the Heather, those two most charming replicas of famous old English and Scotch churches, and their art treasures will be studied with particular attention being given to the wonderful copy in glass of Leonardo Da Venci's famous painting, "The Last Supper." This great picture, imported from Italy after years spent in its construction, has been given a special place in The Little Church of Flowers and although there is no admission charge, still to prevent overcrowding visitors are required to secure tickets in advance to see the picture.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Homer Stipes on Eighth street, Cucamonga, the Jolly Seven club enjoyed a merry party Wednesday afternoon.

Deviating from their custom of sewing on quilt blocks, the guests and their hostess devoted their time to hemming dish towels to the accompaniment of merry chatting. Mrs. Ella Davis was awarded the prize for the neatest work.

Because of illness in her family Mrs. Eva Holland could not be present. Those attending were Mrs. Ella Davis and her guest, Mrs. Dale McIntosh of Wyoming, and Mrs. Edna Maine, the Ontario members; Mrs. Wes Smith, Mrs. Maud Gregg and Mrs. Blanche Bowe and the hostess, Mrs. Stipe, all of Cucamonga.

A Privilege

Jack: Grandpa, when did you become a grandpa?

Grandpa: When you were born.

"And if I had not been born, would you ever have become a grandpa?"

"No."

"Then how much are you going to give me for it?"—Das Bunte Blatt, Stuttgart.

Caught

Jerry: "You used to boast that your love for pretty girls was just a passing fancy. And yet you got married."

Jim: "Yes, I lingered too long in passing the last one."—Answers.

Still in Practice

Taxi Customer (to driver): You talk a lot, my man.

Driver: Well, I'm not married.—Passing Show.

Chorus Girl: "Husbands are easy to catch, aren't they?"

Second Ditto: "I'll say so. A lot easier than bachelors."

Los Angeles Fashion Show Reveals Way Milady to Dress

Lowered hemline and raised waistline for mflady's dress are dictated by Dame Fashion for the spring and summer season, according to the models shown at the annual spring style show at the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles. This is the style news brought back by Mrs. M. H. Bailey of the J. J. Atwood store, who attended the big spring event Wednesday.

Another decree of the style makers that may not be so easily accepted by those mostly concerned, is the increasing tendency to more closely fitted lines. The perfect 36, which has been regaining favor during the past year, has nothing to dread from a form-fitting gown, but this is not always the case with those who need a grapefruit and lettuce diet, or those others who are equally in need of a hearty diet of potatoes and beans and chocolate.

However, one style that will be pleasing to all is that there is to be no style in color. Rather, individuality is being emphasized and one may wear just whatever color one thinks is most becoming. Preference is being shown for floral prints, in either small, medium or large design, and Goldilocks may take her choice without fear of criticism.

Skirts are being cut on the bias which makes them drape gracefully, and as a rule, the new dresses are to be lovely creations.

Merchants, designers and buyers from a dozen Pacific coast states attended the style show.

Harold Lutz Wins Honors in Music

REDLANDS, Jan. 15—Harold Lutz, son of Geo. P. Lutz, of Upland was recently awarded a prize of $3 offered by Dr. Jensen of Long Beach for the best song written by a University of Redlands student embodying the ideals of the institution. Lutz's song was entitled "Fling Forth Your Banner."

Entering in the fall of 1930 as a junior, Lutz has won prominence on the campus for his musical ability. He carried the leading role last year in the junior night musical comedy, "Sonia," and the role of captain in the operetta, "The Firefly." He is a member of the Men's Glee club, a member of the university male quartet, and has done a great deal of solo work at entertainments, on programs, and in the local churches. He is vice-president of the University club for non-fraternity men.

Methodist Women Meet in All-Day Session Thursday

First session of the all-day meeting of the Methodist women's organizations in the church Thursday was held by the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, beginning at 10 a. m. Mrs. F. C. Buffington conducted a brief routine business meeting and Mrs. W. F. Kitchel presented as the lesson the second chapter in the book on Korea which the society is studying. Mrs. Kitchel also exhibited an interesting native Korean costume.

At 11 o'clock the Ladies' Aid society met, with Mrs. J. M. Hawthorne presiding. A business session was held and some time was devoted to a discussion of plans and projects in the interest of the church.

Lunch for members of all three groups was served at noon by the Willing Workers circle.

Following the luncheon hour the Woman's Home Missionary society held a brief business session, Mrs. Irvin A. Engle presiding, and the mite boxes of both missionary societies were opened. The Home Missionary treasury fund was increased by $20 and the Foreign Missionary boxes yielded $11.

An enjoyable program followed Mrs. Ralph Wilson singing three solos as the musical feature. An interesting part of the program was the reading of clippings telling of the work of Home Missionary societies throughout the United States, Alaska and Porto Rico.

TWO UPLAND FIVES IN NIGHT LEAGUE

Creightons and Lemon Growers With Six Others Play in Annual Contest

With the start of the Chaffey night hoop league next Tuesday, interest here is centering today on the Roy Creighton and Upland Lemon Growers' association quintets, the two teams from this district in the battle with six other aggregations. Creighton's won the league in 1931.

Creightons and the First National bank of Pomona are slated to meet in the opening game Tuesday. The Lemon Growers will make their appearance Thursday against the team from the Latter Day Saints' church, Ontario. Games will be played every Tuesday and Thursday nights, starting at 7 o'clock.

On the Growers team are Orville Terry, Roy Hopkins, Ted Stubblefield, Levi Hirschler, Floyd Campbell, Sam McCall and Ernest Fuller. Several practice games have been played, with the Growers rated as one of the best in the league.

Other teams in the league are First National bank, Ontario; All-Stars, Bumstead's, First National bank, Pomona, and Violet Ray.

Following is the schedule for the remainder of this month:

Jan. 19—Creightons vs. First National bank, Pomona; All Stars vs. First National bank, Ontario.

Jan. 21—L. D. S. vs. Lemon Growers; Bumstead vs. Violet Ray.

Jan. 26—All Stars vs. Violet Ray; L. D. S. vs. Bumstead.

Jan. 28—Lemon Growers vs. First National bank, Pomona; Creightons vs. First National bank, Ontario.

Former Resident Taken by Death

On Wednesday Dr. Bert Foster received a wire from Loyalton, Calif., announcing the sudden death of Clarence Johnson. No particulars as to cause have been received as yet. Mr. Johnson will be remembered as the proprietor of the Upland Inn before the present owners took it over.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were very much esteemed by those who knew them, especially by all who were guests in the hotel during their time in Upland. Dr. and Mrs. Foster lived in the hotel for some time and a close friendship has continued between the two families.

Owing to the deep snows over the divide and the probable delay of trains, Dr. Foster did not attempt the journey to attend the funeral, Loyalton being a long, rough trip from Truckee, the nearest railroad station. The funeral was held yesterday.

Alarm Sounds, But No Burglar There

CUCAMONGA, Jan. 15—It would have been too bad for someone if the burglar alarm that sounded at the First National bank at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday night had meant real business.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Brown with a corps of assistants was there, with guns in position, a few seconds after the alarm started. They waited, but no burglar appeared.

Investigation proved that the vault door had been closed in such a way as to cause a short circuit.

Girls Work Leaders Gather at Chaffey for Annual Dinner

Combining the monthly meeting of the executive board and the annual get-acquainted dinner meeting of the community group leaders of the Chaffey Girls Organizations, 65 women gathered at Chaffey Monday and held a most interesting meeting, Mrs. H. M. Shattuck presiding.

For the dinner the women were seated at small tables in groups of six and thus were given an opportunity of renewing friendships and forming new acquaintances.

Taking the place of the monthly reports of the two secretaries, Miss Clara Bissell and Miss Louise Harris, short talks were made by each of the community leaders, who told of the work of and plans for her group.

The speaker of the evening was Miss Anna Clark, member of the national staff of the Y. W. C. A., in the leadership division, who has been working in the Pacific coast district for the past year. Miss Clark's subject was "Facing the Future," and she spoke of the thrill and the responsibility of leaders in facing with the girls of today the present social and economic conditions and the changing conditions that the future holds.

Patrons of Library Are Re-registering Under New System

Re-registering of borrowers at the Upland public library is well under way, according to Mrs. F. H. Manker, librarian, who stated today that more than 800 patrons already have re-registered.

The new self-charging system in which the borrower makes out his own card, also is being put into effect, Mrs. Manker states, and when in full operation will greatly expedite work at the desk. The system of charging is simple and with the explanation given by the attendants is very easy to learn. Mrs. Manker feels certain the library patrons will find this system more convenient and it will save the time of the desk assistant, giving her more opportunity to assist patrons in research work, etc.

It has been 10 years since library borrowers have been registered and the present registration is being made to bring the records up to date. All borrowers are to register and obtain identification cards.

Dr. Engle to Give Illustrated Sermon

Second of a series of illustrated Sunday evening sermons, having as a general theme "What it Means to Be a Christian," will be delivered Sunday night by Dr. Irvin A. Engle, pastor of the Methodist church. The first sermon in the series was heard last Sunday and created much interest in the discussions yet to come.

Using lantern slides, Dr. Engle will illustrate his sermon with unique diagrams and pictures that very forcefully emphasize his meaning.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

WOMEN: watch your

BOWELS

What should women do to keep their bowels moving freely? A doctor should know the answer. That is why pure Syrup Pepsin is so good for women. It just suits their delicate organism. It is the prescription of an old family doctor who has treated thousands of women patients, and who made a special study of bowel troubles.

It is fine for children, too. They love its taste. Let them have it every time their tongues are coated or their skin is sallow. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients.

When you've a sick headache, can't eat, are bilious or sluggish; and at the times when you are most apt to be constipated, take a little of this famous prescription (all drug stores keep it ready in big bottles), and you'll know why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite laxative of over a million women!

Will you

Let your child's eyes limp through life?

NOTICE the next time you are in a crowd of people how many of them are wearing glasses.

Why is it that so many eyes are defective? In a great many cases it is because of poor lighting and improper use of the eyes in childhood.

If you permit your child to read, to study, or even to play where there is not enough light or where there is blinding glare you are making a mistake that may be disastrous. Take care now to prevent your child's eyes from limping through life.

Good light cannot be obtained from bare lamps, or lamps improperly shaded. Use good light to eliminate harsh contrasts—between bright and dark areas.

Enjoy the benefit of plenty of light, for it is inexpensive, and new eyes cannot be bought for any price.

Let our home lighting specialist tell you how to arrange your lamps, and get the full value of the light you buy. This service is free.

CHAFFEY PLAYING SAN BERDOO TODAY

Two Tiger Teams Meet Strong Opposition on County Seat Court

Basketball Standing

Chaffey	2	0	1000
Pomona	2	0	1000
San Bernardino	1	1	.500
Redlands	0	1	.000
Covina	0	1	.000
Riverside	0	2	.000

What takes place in San Bernardino this afternoon may have a strong bearing on the outcome of the Citrus Belt basketball league. Chaffey, sophomore and varsity teams, left for the county seat court early this afternoon to meet the Cards in a double-header.

It will take a real battle and perhaps some luck for the Tigers to continue their winning streak. With Riverside and Covina victories placing Chaffey at the top of the league, Coach Karl Kaiser's squad is rated a favorite, but if everything isn't just right, the Cards are likely to disturb local title hopes.

The Chaffey squad includes lots of reserve material and it is improving with each encounter. In the Covina clash last Friday, 10 Chaffey players got into the game, and the reserves accounted for themselves just as impressively as the starting players.

As to the sophomore tilt, Chaffey is scheduled to take the contest without much trouble. Fast, accurate and able to shoot goals, the little Tigers will meet a San Bernardino five that so far has not shown much in the way of scoring.

Pomona defeated San Bernardino last week by a three-point margin.

TOMORROW'S GAME WILL BE REAL GO

Panthers, Fullerton Clash in Crucial Contest, With Each Strong

If local basketball fans want to see a game that will be just as good as any championship encounter, they ought to be in the Chaffey gym tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock.

Fullerton and Chaffey junior colleges tangle in the first home game for the Panther five. Several of last year's Chaffey high hoop stars will be seen in the junior college uniform. The local five is rated as better than last year's Southern California championship five. They are good.

And so is Fullerton—and that is why tomorrow's game should be good. Last week Fullerton overwhelmed Citrus with some spectacular basket-shooting, running up 63 points.

Both of tomorrow's opponents won the opening games, Chaffey taking in Santa Ana while Fullerton defeated Citrus. Winner of the clash here will still be undefeated and both teams will be keyed up for a spirited battle.

Round-Robin Tennis Tourney Is Underway

Round-robin tennis tournament is under way on the Chaffey campus to enable Walter Hall, coach, to pick the Tiger net team. Thirteen men are in competition with four outstanding in the score leadership at present.

The four are Walter Hall, son of the coach; Allan Delahoyd, Ray Phelps and Norris Harris.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. And this pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drugstore the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

Hundred P.-T. A. Members Told of Chinese Children

With approximately 100 members in attendance, the meeting Wednesday of the Tenth street Parent-Teacher association was featured by an exceptionally interesting program and an important discussion of child welfare work. Mrs. Hjalmar Anderson, president of the association, presided.

It was decided to devote the resources of the association to welfare work among the children of the district, in cooperation with the city and school welfare commission. Mrs. Anderson will appoint a committee through which the work will be carried on.

The children of China, their education, or lack of it, their home life, etc., were discussed in interesting manner by Ben Schmidt, Y. M. C. A. secretary of Ontario, who was the speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Schmidt and their two young daughters, Barbara and Joyce, wearing Chinese costumes, sang several songs in Chinese. The Schmidt family have spent a number of years in China.

A very small per cent of Chinese children are educated in the sense in which we use the term, Mr. Schmidt stated, and that small minority are, of course, in the wealthy families. However the children are educated in handicraft, being taught in their early years to make many articles of household use and wearing apparel. Mr. Schmidt exhibited numerous specimens of such handiwork, including exquisitely wrought embroideries and cutwork linens, all done by childish hands.

Their manner of living also was described. Mr. Schmidt telling of the construction of the homes in which members of several generations live together.

Preceding the program assembly singing was led by Mrs. H. J. Stickney. Mrs. J. L. Grahame was in charge of the program.

Double the pleasure of your day in town

...by going this carefree, comfortable way

WHENEVER you visit downtown Los Angeles...to shop, to attend a theater, on business or for whatever reason...you can make the trip doubly enjoyable by going and coming on a swift, safe, comfortable Big Red Car.

Eliminate the hazards and nerve strain of traffic on crowded streets and highways...chief cause of that fag that so often follows a day in town. Let the motorman be your chauffeur.

Eliminate too, the bother and expense of parking downtown.

Best of all, ride for a great deal less than the cost of other means of travel. Low roundtrip fares of about two cents a mile bring you a substantial saving in addition to that of parking fees. (If you go to town daily, the Red Car Monthly Pass or commutation tickets offer a still greater economy. . a good many dollars a month actual cash saved if you now go some other way.)

Parcel Check Rooms

If you shop, you may find it convenient to use the parcel check rooms Pacific Electric maintains at both Hill St. and Sixth & Main Sts. station. Check parcels when you're near the station, and claim them later, before you start home. Plenty of room for packages on trains, especially if you shop between 10 and 4. However, many stores make daily free delivery to suburban communities.

Missionary Society Entertained

With an exceptionally good attendance the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the community church met at the home of Mrs. Charles Beckley for an all-day session.

A lovely luncheon of an appetizing menu was served at the noon hour by the hostess, Mrs. Beckley. Mrs. Ben Miller was in charge of the afternoon's program. A chapter from the mission study book was given and illustrated pictures were used which made it most interesting. Mrs. R. R. Buchanan was in charge of the devotional period.

A business meeting conducted by Mrs. Arthur Capen, president of the society, plans were made for a New England dinner followed by a social affair to be given by the ladies of the Community church on Jan. 29. At the next meeting of the society which will be during the month of February at the church parlors, Mrs. J. M. Chamberlin and Mrs. George Keyes will be hostesses.

Men's Tourney Started

Wednesday night marked the opening of the men's 500 tourney of the Alta Loma Community club. There was an exceptionally good attendance and much spirited and expert card playing was witnessed throughout the evening. About Etiwanda and Its People

(By Mrs. A. A. Werner)

The regular monthly meeting of the Etiwanda Service club was held Wednesday evening at the Congregational church. Dinner was served by the Etiwanda Ladies Aid, after which Mr. Woglum of the citrus pest control department of the Citrus exchange gave a talk on the life history of the red scale. Mr. Lorteer of Santa Paula told how the red scale was controlled in that section, while County Horticultural commissioner J. P. A wide variety of weather was experienced here the past two days. Upon arising Wednesday morning our eyes were met with a typical eastern landscape, snow having fallen during the night until the ground was covered and the trees were laden with snow, although not so heavily that limbs were broken with the weight, as sometimes occurs. By noon the snow was melted except in sheltered spots and in the wayside grass. Wednesday afternoon we had a thunderstorm and in the evening rain and hail fell. Clearing skies throughout the night brought the temperature down dangerously low and a number of local citrus growers lit their smudge pots in the early morning hours.

Mrs. A. A. Werner is ill with an attack of flu.

"Way Back Home" To Be Attraction Here

Another noted radio personality wins universal recognition and expression in the movies. Seth Parker, who was lifted into radio from the front parlor of a sea coast cottage in Maine, now comes to the screen in the Upland theatre in "Way Back Home."

Every Sunday evening listeners hear Seth, "Ma" Parker and their neighbors singin' hymns and exchanging talk about everyday life. From this setting in Jonesport, Maine, Radio Pictures has built an original story around the homely philosophy of Seth. He and the eleven members of his radio family plus a strong supporting cast of film players are in the show.

This climaxes an idea that came to a young man who, hardly more than two years ago, got off a train at Grand Central station and found himself "lost" in a big city. Pull the whiskers off Seth Parker today and you have that same young man. He is Phillips Lord, a New Englander of 28 years, who claims to be neither actor nor apostle. Yet he created a role which has brought happiness to millions of radio listeners and will bring wholesome joy to as great a host of others who will see him on the screen.

Cost of Pullets in County Is Studied

Poultrymen in this district will be interested in the results of a survey on the cost of raising pullets to the laying age. The survey has been conducted by J. P. Hertel, assistant farm advisor, who aims to improve the management and the quality of chicks.

Each pullet raised in this county is said to cost an average of $1.32 divided as follows: feed cost, $.59; cost of chick, $.32; fuel, depreciation, interest on investment and labor, $.41.

The cost last year totaled $1.62 for each pullet raised. The difference in costs is believed to have been lessened this year by the lower feed costs.

Hertel states that inasmuch as feed constitutes 44.7 per cent of the cost and labor 24.2 per cent of the total expense, these are the two major items to be watched by poultrymen who wish to produce good pullets at a minimum cost.

The hired man asked little Johnny to pass the salt. Looking at his mother, the boy hesitated.

"Shall I give him the salt?" he whispered. "Daddy says he isn't worth it."

describing the experience.

He walked away and then turned to wave goodbye to his aunt. Mrs. Morrison could hardly relate this point. It was dramatic and her nerves still feel the effect of those terrible hours and days of waiting and hoping.

She waited alone in the car and kept a constant eye turned in the direction her only hope of rescue had gone. She watched that direction for one day and night and up to 4 o'clock of the next day.

The nephew had been found almost exhausted by a road crew 16 miles from the car. He could not talk, but the identification notes told of Mrs. Morrison. He was taken by the road tractor to the Mattly ranch. There Mr .and Mrs. Gene Kennedy, the relatives, aided in rushing the rescue party to Mrs. Morrison.

As she saw that party approach the car, she nearly collapsed.

They were recovering at the Mattly ranch. There Mr. and Mrs. returning here. Mrs. Morrison returned over the week-end from the Mono county ranch. The nephew was taken to the steamer and off to a navy hospital. She is expecting word of his condition at any time.

Church To Give Biblical Story

A dramatic presentation of that great Bible story "The Feast of Belshazzar," will be given at 7:30 Sunday night at the First Christian church in Ontario, it was announced this morning by the pastor, the Rev. Shirley Shaw.

This religious drama, carrying a great spiritual lesson, is to be presented by the Wright Players, a group of California dramatists who for 11 seasons have been appearing throughout the state in religious productions exclusively. So popular have their appearances become that they have in recent years been called to give their dramas in eastern states.

The players carry their own elaborate stage settings and costumes and their productions are very colorful.

The public is cordially invited to attend this dramatic service Sunday evening.

Transients Coming Have Means, Report

Approximately 90 per cent of the motorists entering Southern California at the border quarantine stations are well-financed and are not seeking employment, according to the results of a recent survey received by J. A. Graves, state fire chief. Graves has been engaged in an unemployment survey to determine the sources of labor seeking work at the state labor camps in and near San Bernardino.

The survey made at the quarantine stations was made under the direct supervision of Frank L. Shaw, chairman of the Los Angeles county organization for unemployment relief. Approximately 3,500 motorists were quizzed during the survey, it was asserted.

According to the figures, 90 per cent were merely coming to California to spend the winter and had ample money. Only 3.7 per cent had inadequate funds and would possibly be dependent upon any outside help, while 6 per cent wanted employment but had sufficient money for their stay and return trip to their homes. Shaw stated that the inspectors at the stations maintain that the class of tourists in the past few months is better than ever before.

"Just look at old Phillips over there—thoroughly enjoying himself! And I've always understood he was a woman-hater."

"So he is; but she's not with him tonight."—Tit-Bits.
